

LIGHT FROM A

DEAD STAR

He lives his life in a world left of women And he takes what he wants from their love And he throws the rest away I cling to him and pray But still he slips away And now it's just too late to wish him back again She won't put up with this life so she leaves him And she finds someone else, falls in love And she travels far away I say that it's ok And swallow all my pain And now it's just too late to wish her back again They left me here on my own in a nightmare And I just can't forgive anyone So I smile and turn away Don't listen when they say They wish that I could stay And now it's just too late to wish me back again

KISS CHASE

tiny children on their own they learn so fast How to make new friends, how to play, their new games I remember a man he had shiny hair Always hanging around when you went away Little eight year old, she knows too many secrets Much too young to understand what it means I remember a woman with silver hair And the smell and the taste of the bed we shared And that's how I behaved Every time that you went away And now, though I'm older nothing's changed (playing the same games) And I know every day Came a chance that you'd leave me So I found what I could to take your place Told me not to cry Said that I'd survive As
